

PLAN TO DOUBLE STRENGTH OF FLEET

Wilson and Daniels Discuss Informally, the Needs of the Navy

NUMBER IS NOT FIXED

Important Part of Program Will Be Proposal for Large Increase in Personnel

FIRST YEAR COST $248,000,000

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Fifteen to twenty fighting ships of the dreadnaught and battle cruiser type with a proportionate number of sea-going submarines, coast submarines, scout cruisers, destroyers and auxiliaries—enough to make a new American fleet—is contemplated by Secretary Daniels for recommendation as a five year building program for the United States navy.

President Wilson and Secretary Daniels have discussed informally the needs of the navy and are agreed that the present strength of the fleet must be almost doubled in the next five years, with the addition of many of the latest type of fast and powerful fighting craft.

Details Not Finally Worked Out. Details as to numbers have not yet been finally worked out but the idea of fixing a ratio for a continuing program over a period of five years is the basic principle upon which the general board of the navy and Secretary Daniels now are planning their recommendations. Another conference between the president and the secretary will be held Friday at which the total number probably will be fixed.

The five year naval program, when completed, would add in addition to dreadnaughts and battle cruisers nearly a hundred submarines about seventy destroyers and several scout cruisers and a proportionate number of fuel and hospital ships.

An important part of the program, too, will be a proposal for a large increase in personnel. Appropriation for at least $,000 additional men will be asked for the first year to make up present deficiencies and an adequate number will be sought to man the new ships built in the five year period.

First Year Cost $248,000,000. The total cost of the proposed program for the first year, according to present plans, is estimated at nearly $248,000,000 or about $100,000,000 increase over last year. Just what construction should be provided for the first year has not been determined.

As to the approximate number of ships the fleet should have at the end of five years, however, officers of the general board and Secretary Daniels are understood to be in thorough accord. Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations, is being consulted daily by the secretary and within a few days the complete program is expected to be ready for examination by President Wilson. It is considered probable the construction program for the first year will exceed that of succeeding years in order that urgent deficiencies may be filled promptly. The general board has been consistently recommending four battleships a year but last year's congress provided only two in the regular program, although the building of a third dreadnaught was made possible by the sale of the battleships Mississippi and Idaho to Greece. The previous year only one battleship was granted.

Original Plan Suffers. The general board's original plan of having a fleet of 48 first class battleships by 1920 consequently has suffered materially.

It is understood that after studying the naval program carefully, President Wilson intends to discuss it in his annual message and to make of it an administration measure.

The building program last year provided for sixteen submarines, so that the total of such craft, built and building, now is seventy. Although effective means of combating undersea warfare, apparently have been found in Europe, it is the purpose of the navy department to recommend at least thirty submarines for next year, so as to furnish an adequate number for defensive purposes. In the next four years, however, an average of sixteen submarines a year, a few of which would be fleet submarines, would be maintained. That would bring the total to about 170 in five years.

It is not known as yet what the plans of the navy are for the organization of the new fleet, but the general belief in naval quarters is that the plan of having a fleet in the Pacific will figure materially in the program.

DICKINSON PRAISES SECRETARY GARRISON

SPEAKS AT RALLY OF CHICAGO
BRANCH OF SECURITY LEAGUE

Former Secretary Asserts Garrison "Clearly Saw Our Helplessness" and "Boldly Took a Public Stand for Armament."

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, Harry Pratt Judson, president of the University of Chicago, and others addressed members of the National Security League at a rally of the Chicago branch of that organization tonight. Speaking on public defense Mr. Dickinson said the whole country is becoming alert for more adequate defense. He praised Secretary of War Garrison, who, he said, was the first of those in administrative circles to take a decided stand for preparedness. "Mr. Garrison clearly saw our helplessness," Mr. Dickinson asserted. "He understood that the future might well have possibilities seriously threatening our national life and boldly took a public stand for armament. The president is deliberate, penetrating, studious and patriotic. He says little, but does things with tremendous power."

Need Not Fear Militarism. Mr. Judson said militarism need not be feared. He declared the spirit of the people will never permit it. The United States may defer as to Germany's part in the present war, he said, knowing that Germany not only did not suffer from economic waste from military service, but that it contributed to train her people in every activity in life to a general efficiency that has surpassed all other nations since history began. "It is unfortunate that physical force is yet necessary in human society," said Mr. Judson. "One of the most commonplace things under our observation is the necessity of a police force for public protection. It is obvious that if we force be withdrawn from persons and property would suffer from criminal classes."

Country is Almost Undefended. "Our country is rich. It possesses vast sources of natural wealth. It is likely to come into competition with other nations in seeking a share of the commerce of the world. It is, from a military point of view, weak and almost undefended. Philosophy, poetry, sympathy, humanity, the ideals of peace are beautiful, but they will not stop the progress of any battleship they will not turn back the invasion of any regiment of trained troops. Does the United States desire to be an American China? It is an illusion to believe at the end of the present war the belligerents will be so exhausted that they will all desire peace. The victorious group of nations will find itself in possession of a great army of veteran troops, of considerable power and flushed with victory, will be quite willing to recoup its losses at the expense of wealthy and undefended neutrals."

Colonel George T. Buckingham, Chicago millionaire and peace advocate, explained the purpose of the league and urged national preparedness.

GRAIN MEN HEAR SENATOR SHERMAN

Declares Too Much Regulation By Government Amounts to Confiscation

INSISTS ON HONESTY

Senator Asserts Grain Inspection Under Federal Regulation is a Measure of the Extreme

TO HOLD ELECTION TODAY

PEORIA, Ill., Oct. 12.—Fifteen hundred grain men from all parts of the United States, gathered here for the nineteenth annual meeting of the Grain Dealers' National association, today heard United States Senator L. V. Sherman discuss the limit of business regulation by the government.

"For my part I would rather have public regulation than public ownership of a business that is essentially private," said Senator Sherman. "But there is always a danger of overdoing everything. Now there's a little common honesty even among men in public life and I say that too much regulation by the government amounts to confiscation by the government. I used a word there that I may be criticised for, but I'm going to stick to it because there are some public speakers who are actually advocating confiscating the big businesses on the theory that they are made possible by the people and hence belong to the people."

Against Extreme Regulation. "I am against extreme regulation. I insist that the government of the United States be just as honest as it demands its subjects shall be. Grain inspection under federal regulation is a measure of the extreme. It goes too far in proposing a remedy."

By way of warning to the grain men that to much neglect of moral principles in business would lead to government regulation, Senator Sherman declared that investigation by government officials had disclosed that not less than 1 per cent of the grain business was crooked. "If I were to say anything to you business men it would be to keep our contract. Keep it. Deliver the kind of trouble over failure of the American business man to deliver the kind of stuff they contract to deliver. In one case out of every hundred the contract is not performed and 99 men are condemned for the acts of the one."

Continuation of lax methods, he said, might result in legislating the grain exchange out of business.

To Elect Officers. Tomorrow morning, Prof. George Livingston of the department of agriculture at Washington will address the convention on the "Problems of Grain Marketing." Kenton D. Kellholtz, of Toledo, O., will discuss "Crop Reports." Bert A. Boyd, of Indianapolis, is scheduled for an address on "Uniform Grades. Officers will be elected tomorrow afternoon.

DOES NOT FAVOR AGENCIES IN SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA

Board Decides Pioneer Work in the Latin-American Countries Should Be Done By Member Banks of Reserve System.

Washington, Oct. 12.—The federal reserve board today announced that for the present it would not favor establishment of joint agencies of federal reserve banks in South and Central American countries with the possibility that reserve bank money would be looked up in long time loans subject to wide fluctuations of foreign exchange.

Pioneer work in the Latin-American countries, the board decided, should be done by member banks of the federal reserve system and with this end in view it promised support to an amendment which would enable the members to co-operate in owning and operating foreign banks.

Secretary McAdoo recently suggested establishment of joint agencies and the proposal was approved by President Wilson in a letter which Mr. McAdoo made public and then laid before the reserve board. Today the secretary explaining that the plan he favored did not contemplate operations of the character objected to, joined in the action of the board in approving an unfavorable committee report.

Vice-Governor Delano, Paul M. Warburg and W. P. G. Harding composed the committee.

FIND $10,000 HIDDEN IN TIN CANS, MATTRESSES AND BOXES

Second Mystery is Thrown Around Home of Mrs. Jean Deslarge Near Pana.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 12.—With the finding of $10,000 principally in gold, hidden in tin cans, mattresses and boxes about the home of Mrs. Jean Deslarge near here today, a second mystery has been thrown around the fenced tract of weeds and crumbling shack which for thirty years has been known locally as the "mystery farm."

The money was found by Frank Oakes, recently appointed conservator for Mrs. Deslarge on the petition of her daughter, now Mrs. Edward Ransford of Evansville, Ind. Mr. Oakes' visit to the Deslarge home today and during the funeral of Jean Deslarge, the head of the house, a year ago, were the only occasions in over a quarter of a century when anyone not a member of the family is known to have entered the gates of "mystery farm."

Thirty years ago Miss Ardel Deslarge married Edward Ransford and moved to Evansville. Since then Mrs. Deslarge, her son Louis, fifty years old, and another daughter, Hortense, fifty-five, have secluded themselves on the farm. The son was the only member ever seen to leave the homestead and he did so only to go to market.

Mrs. Ransford could not or would not explain the reason for the secluded life of her relatives.

NIBLACK FINISHES HIS TESTIMONY

Denies Any Knowledge of Run on La Salle Street Bank

APPEALS TO COURT

Receiver Asks Permission to Make Full Replies in Face of Oath He Had Taken

ESTIMATE IS MERELY A GUESS

MORRIS, Ill., Oct. 12.—William C. Niblack, receiver of the defunct LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank, concluded his two day's testimony in the trial of C. B. Munday, former vice-president of the bank late today. He underwent cross examination by the defense without qualifying his statements of yesterday. Material interruptions were frequent, including many by the examining lawyers. Niblack at one time appealed to the court to permit him to make full replies in the face of the oath he had taken to tell the truth. Attorney Hogan had been cutting his answer short, he said.

Know Nothing of Run. Niblack denied any knowledge of an alleged run in the bank, although he admitted the books showed that deposits decreased rapidly during the last two months of business. Attorney Hogan's contention was that the bank paid out a million and a quarter in cash on withdrawn deposits during the week preceding the close.

Niblack said he was unaware that the Munday family had about $6,000 on deposit in the institution when the bank examiner ordered business suspended. He was not aware that the various Munday concerns had $32,000 there, as Munday asserted. He insisted only $32,098, in cash was contained in the vaults although Munday's attorneys claimed the institution had on hand in cash and the equivalent at that time of $640,000.

Explains $640,000 Reckoning. The witness explained over an objection that in the $640,000 reckoning, the attorneys for the defense were counting the money due it from other banks, but ignoring what they had outstanding under similar rules of exchange. Niblack said the alleged run on the bank would not have materially affected the values of any good securities which it might have had on hand.

He said the value of the bank building was carried on the books at $462,000 but that there was nothing to show that there was a mortgage of $200,000 and a merchants' lien against the property. He estimated the value at from $450,000 to $475,000.

He said Munday owned 2,596 of the 10,000 shares of the bank. C. B. Munday & Co. 58 and J. G. Munday 90, or about one fourth interest.

Estimate Is Merely a Guess.

The witness' estimate of a payment of fifty cents on the dollar made yesterday, he said, was merely a guess and dependent upon the outcome of the many suits now pending and the payment of 100 per cent assessments on the stockholders many of whom, he said, would not pay.

He corroborated the state's attorney on saying that much of the right-of-way of the Southern Traction company was still unpaid for and that the title to it still was vested in the original owners.

Frank M. Spohr, auditor of the bank, was called to the witness stand just prior to adjournment. He identified the daily financial statement of the last day on which the bank did business when the amount of loans reached a total of $3,376,282.65.

Spohr probably will be on the stand for two days.

GOVERNMENT DEFENDS HEAVIER TAXATION ON EIG INCOMES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Heavier taxation on big incomes as a relief from the "disproportionate share" of governmental support borne by the poor under indirect taxation was defended today by the government in a brief filed with the supreme court in the pending income tax cases.

The brief bears the names of Attorney General Gregory, Solicitor General Davis and Assistant Attorney General William Wallace, Jr., and represents months of study by the government's legal talent of all the various attacks on the income tax the success of which would reduce the government's income $82,000,000 a year.

WOMAN HOLDS FORCE OF DETECTIVES AT BAY

RESERVES LATER RUSH PLACE, ONLY TO FIND SHE DISAPPEARED

Trouble Grows Out of Arrest of Captain Wellington Streeter by Chicago Police—Detective Sergeant is Wounded by Bullet Fired by Mrs. Streeter.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Captain Wellington Streeter, an old man who lays claim to a strip of lake frontage on the North Shore adjoining the property of wealthy residents in Chicago's most exclusive neighborhood, is at liberty under bonds, tonight, charged with violation of the internal revenue law. Detective Sergeant George Cudmore is suffering from a bullet wound; Mrs. Stella Streeter, who fired the shot when the officer attempted to arrest her husband, is "some place in Chicago."

Threatens to Shoot. For a time it seemed that serious trouble might grow out of the attempt of officers to take the old man into custody and even after he had been arrested his wife held at bay a force of detectives that had been summoned to arrest her for the shooting. After threatening to "shoot the first man that dared to come near the house" Mrs. Streeter locked the doors and windows of her shabby old dwelling and awaited with drawn revolver the approach of the officers. Reserves were summoned and they rushed the place but to find that Mrs. Streeter had disappeared, leaving in charge her seventeen year old son. Shortly afterward she appeared at the office of the United States commissioner, who was to hear the charge against her husband.

"We have held the 'District of Lake Michigan' for thirty years," she shrieked, "and we'll hold it thirty years more. The District of Lake Michigan is not in the state of Illinois and the police had no right to come there."

Streeter is Out on Bond. She was permitted to go. Her husband who had been detained in a cell was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,400. The bond was signed by Charles E. Roland, a real-estate broker.

A number of years ago while Captain Streeter and several men in his employ were defending the District of Lake Michigan, as he designated the strip of frontage to which he claims title, a policeman was shot and killed. For this Streeter and one of his men served a term in prison. The property was in almost constant litigation for many years. Finally Streeter was elected by court order but to return later claiming title as a squatter.

It was said Sergeant Cudmore's wound was not serious. Late tonight Mrs. Streeter walked into a police station and gave herself up. She was held in custody but was not booked.

WILL START LEGAL FIGHT TO AMEND FACTORY INSPECTION LAW

Col. Fyffe States Many Unreasonable Features Have Developed in the Operation of the Law.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—A movement to obtain more equitable administration of state factory inspection laws will be undertaken by the Illinois Manufacturers' association according to plans promulgated today at a meeting of various committees of the association.

Col. E. H. Fyffe, general counsel for the association, asserted that the present state factory inspection law was unconstitutional.

"The law itself," said Mr. Fyffe, "probably would stand the test of constitutionality but many unreasonable features have developed in the operation of the law. Instances are at hand where manufacturers have been compelled to spend from $5,000 to $10,000 for improvements which have not done the employees fifty dollars' worth of good."

Mr. Fyffe said a legal fight to eliminate some of the objectionable features of the law would be started at once.

ATTACK SERBIA FROM TWO SIDES

Austro-Germans Advance Southward—Bulgars Attack from East

SERIOUS FOR ALLIES

Serbs Are Arranging for the Transfer of Capital to Monastir—Greece Still Neutral

ENTENTE TO TAKE ACTION

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Serbia is now being attacked from the north and the east. The Austro-Germans, after their capture of Belgrade and Semendria, are advancing southward, while the Bulgarians have sent forces to endeavor to interrupt communications north and south of Nish, the war time capital of Serbia, and attack the Serbs on the flank if they are driven back by the German Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

Situation Serious for Allies. The situation is admitted to be a very serious one not only for Serbia but for the whole allied cause. It is asserted that the Serbians are inflicting very heavy losses both on the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians, but with their army of about a quarter of a million men they are believed to have little chance of making any prolonged resistance against three or four hundred thousand Austro-Germans and probably two hundred thousand Bulgars. They already are arranging for the transfer of the capital to Monastir, in the extreme southwestern corner of the kingdom.

Greece apparently has decided to ignore the treaty under which she is supposed to go to the assistance of her Serbian ally in case of an attack. Premier Zaimis having said when officially notified of the Bulgarian attack that Greece remains in a position of armed neutrality.

Hand Bulgarian Minister Passports. The followers of the quadruple entente, however, have decided to take energetic action. As soon as the news of the Bulgarian attack on Serbia was received in London the Bulgarian Ministry was warned his passports and Mr. Viviani, the French prime minister, in the chamber of deputies today declared that France, Great Britain and Russia decided to take joint action and that tomorrow, "Russian troops will be fighting beside ours."

An Anglo-French force is known to be landing Saloniki, but there is considerable speculation as to where Russia will enter the Balkan conflict. It is reported that Grand Duke Nicholas is to command the Russian Balkan army, which, it is believed in military circles here, would make the Bulgarian people less willing to fight against Russia, there being a deep veneration among the Bulgarian peasants for the emperor of Russia and his family.

Italy Will Not Co-operate.

It is understood that Italy has decided not to co-operate with the allies in the Balkans, the Italian government being of the opinion that troops cannot be spared for any campaign other than that in Trentino and Trieste.

Now that Austria and Germany have entered on their Balkan enterprise, which is interpreted as being the first step toward an endeavor to secure a German empire in the Near East, there can be no drawing back, but the allies hope that with a vigorous offensive both on the east and the west they will be able at least to prevent the sending of any large reinforcements to Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

The French in both the Champagne and Artois regions of France are continuing their offensive but not on the scale of the recent attacks. The British after their success in repelling the big German attack are preparing for another move but at what point only the commanding generals know. Now that they have started it is believed here the British and French on the western line will give the Germans no rest. It is much the same on the eastern front. The Austro-Germans having brought their offensive to an end, except in the region of Dvinsk, the Russians have recuperated and are striking back in their familiar way. The Germans claim another success west of Dvinsk but they are still fighting to the west of Iloukist.

Repulse Russ Counter-Attacks. They also announce that Russian counter-attacks have been repulsed south of the Pripiet river in Volhynia and in Galicia.

Teh territory in which this battle was fought marks the extreme left of the Russian battle line. The Russian offensive on this front started several weeks ago, when successes were won at Tarnopol and Trembowla. Austro-German reinforcements were rushed up and hard and incessant fighting has taken place since. General Count Von Bothmer commands the Austro-Germans in this sector and the German official report of today says that the position of the "German troops" with him is unchanged.

THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK.

The opening of the pioneer American college for women took place yesterday at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., there lived in that village on the Hudson a brewer by the name of Matthew Vassar who had so much money he did not know what to do with it. A far-seeing man, with the vision of a public benefactor before him, he gave the world Vassar College, the first to be endowed, to have its libraries, its museums and the other factors of a modern college, exclusively for women.

The academic commemoration exercises are being held at Vassar today. President Emeritus James M. Taylor, Emily James Putman and Lillian Wold are the speakers. Exhibitions, receptions and concerts mark the big day at Poughkeepsie. The other chief event is the inauguration of the new President, Dr. Henry Noble McCracken which takes place tomorrow. In addition to the inaugural address, there will be addresses by Dr. George Lyman Kittredge, Professor of English at Harvard, Dr. John H. Finley, president of the University of the State of New York and Commissioner of Education.

While Vassar is not the oldest woman's college in the United States, it was the first to be endowed and thoroughly equipped. Elizabeth Academy in Missouri was chartered as a college in 1819, Mississippi College gave degrees to women in 1832, and the Georgia Female College in 1840. The Ohio Wesleyan Female College was founded in 1853 and the Wesleyan Female College of Cincinnati in 1842.

In the Palace of Education at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, nearly every State in the Union is represented by a specialized exhibit. There are no duplications. Each state has concentrated its efforts upon the chief lesson which it had to teach the world. New York shows its system of centralized school control that is unique in America. Primary, grammar and high schools as well as universities and professional schools are under the direct management of a state department of education.

Massachusetts displays the methods and results of the state-aided vocational schools which it instituted when the discovery was made that one third of the boys and girls over sixteen years of age were out of school and out of work. In 1911 these schools employed 251 teachers; last year the teaching force was 600. Wisconsin has specialized in university extension work, carrying education to the people. There the teacher goes to the farmer and on his own acres shows him the better way. Oregon shows how it has lifted the rural school to a new standard. California makes an elaborate display of school architecture and shows many varieties of open-air schools, stadiums and playgrounds. Gary, Ind., shows its methods of making a wider use of the school plant. Utah demonstrates how it teaches the pupils the practical things, and many other states and sections have brought to the Exposition unique features that figure in the modern education.

The State Universities.

The big State Universities of the West are this fall, more than ever before, attracting the college youths. Although every move by the New England colleges during the last three years in the way of changes in entrance requirements was made with a view to lowering the bars for the boy from the western high school to enter the big Eastern university, the proportion of western students is dropping, and Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth and the other big New England institutions will soon be filled almost entirely by natives. The boys from the west still go east, but the number is not increasing and in many cases is decreasing, and most of them are seeking professional training.

It is so much easier for the Illinois, or Michigan, or Wisconsin high school graduate to enter his State University than it is for him to enter the New England universities, that the big western institutions are growing at an enormous rate.

The Western educators continue to be in demand in the East. During the past five years not fewer than fifteen college presidents were brought to New England from the West.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Washington—The silver jubilee of the Daughters of the American Revolution recalls the foundation of that notable body of women. It was just 25 years ago today that seven women met here and founded the Daughters. They were led by Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, who protested against the giving of all the honor for the winning of American freedom to the sires of the nation. To see that the women of the colonies, who had raised the crops to feed the army, wove the cloth to clothe them, looking after the homes and the children, moulded their knives and forks into bullets, and kept the country alive, were not forgotten was the aim of Mrs. Lockwood and her co-workers. One of the first women to become a member was Mrs. Harrison, wife of President Harrison. Mrs. Lockwood, the founder, is now in her 84th year, physically active and mentally brilliant. She has served the society in many capacities, and at the last congress was unanimously elected as chaplain-general. The day is being celebrated by the various chapters throughout the country, and an effort is being made to lift the debt from Memorial Continental Hall, the national headquarters here.

Boston—The arrival today of Earl and Lady Aberdeen brought to America two distinguished visitors. Lady Aberdeen, who has done so much to wipe out tuberculosis in the peasant huts of Ireland, will be the guest of Boston women at several receptions. She will deliver a lecture on Wednesday evening, and prior to that event, a luncheon will be tendered here by the Women's City Club. They will tour the United States and Canada.

Blairtown, N. J.—Mrs. Sarah E. Snover and her husband, Thomas L. Snover, parted thirty-five years ago. Their six children were brought up by the wife, and they are married and happy. Now Mrs. Snover is suing the woman she claims stole her husband from her three and a half decades ago. She is seeking in the courts redress for the years of alleged wrongs, and asks $5,000 damages from Mrs. Harriet Wilver, a widow, with whom Snover boarded.

This domestic tragedy has attracted much interest throughout this section. The man in the triangle was defeated for the freeholder nomination on the Democratic ticket at the recent primaries. He is sixty-seven years old; his wife is 66, and the "woman in the case" is fifty-eight.

That an automobile is responsible for the present suit is one of the unusual features of the case. The years of privation and hard work failed to begin any retaliatory action. But recently the frequent sight of the woman she calls her rival, seated beside her husband in his new motor car, turned her thoughts to revenge. She forced her husband to contribute to her support and then gave her attention to the widow. The latter denies she stole the woman's husband, and asserts that Snover had ample reasons for leaving home. When the case comes up for trial this month in the Warren county court, the full story of the domestic tragedy or a generation ago will be unfolded.

New York.—The secession of New York section from the Council of Jewish Women, is headed by Miss Sadie American, who has done such effective work in aid of Jewish girl immigrants in New York. A new name will be selected for the New York organization, which will continue to aid immigrant girls.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Vassar College will be celebrated this week. Noted educators from American and foreign universities are attending, and many of the alumnae will take part.

London.—Few women in England play a more important part in the great affairs of today than Miss Owen Lloyd George, who is known as the "right-hand man" of her illustrious father, the Minister of Munitions. Lloyd George has a nervous temperament, and his daughter often keeps him in bed while she directs his affairs. She has aided him materially in his public duties, and has preserved his health by taking him out on the golf links, and at times camping in the out-of-doors. This summer has been a trying one for her, for the great question of munitions fell on her father's shoulders, and he has required all his strength and her aid to meet the problems of his office.

WITH THE SICK

Dr. Frank A. Stubblefield, formerly of this city and now medical director at the Alton State hospital, suffered an attack of illness recently which confined him to his bed for ten days. He is now able to attend to his work, according to word received by friends here.

Miss Lucy Duncan, who for the past week has been ill at Our Savior's hospital, expected to leave last night for Ottawa. Dr. J. K. Elder was in the city Tuesday to accompany her.

Gus Seymour, of Nortonville, was in Jacksonville yesterday. Mrs. Seymour, who recently returned from Indianapolis where she was undergoing treatment for cancer, is but little improved, he reports, although there is yet hope that the treatment may be of benefit.

Miss Jeanette Leek, of West North street, underwent an operation Tuesday forenoon for appendicitis at Our Savior's hospital.

E. E. Wells, who for the past week has been ill at his home on South Main street, is improving.

W. J. Moore continues to improve at his home on South Prairie street.

MATRIMONIAL

Helme-Stidger. Announcements have been received in Jacksonville of the recent marriage of Miss Marie Stidger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stidger, of St. Louis. The marriage of Miss Stidger to Mr. George T. Helme occurred at Alton and came as a surprise even to the most intimate friends of the young people. Mrs. Helme is a niece of Miss Martha Tapp of this city, and has been here several times as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Oswald.

H. H. BANCROFT CHOSEN CHAUTAUQUA PLATFORM MANAGER

Action Taken at Recent Meeting of Chautauqua Board—Deficit for 1915 Festival $157.18.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Jacksonville Chautauqua H. H. Bancroft was unanimously chosen as platform manager for the year 1916. There was a good attendance of the directors and the finances of the chautauqua were discussed. A report shows that the organization is in debt only $157.18. The figures as compiled follow:

Total expenses for 1915	Chautauqua	$4495.48
Deficit from 1914 Chautauqua		886.00
Total		$5382.48
Total receipt for 1915 chautauqua		$5225.30

Net deficit $ 157.18

All bills have been paid and the deficit has been reduced to the above amount. It will be remembered that Mr. Bryan stated to the directors that the only fee he would ask would be the day's receipts. They were $27.50, but this amount was increased substantially for Mr. Bryan.

The directors feel that the attendance will be unusually large next year. The water supply is always an important item at chautauquas and in this regard the Jacksonville chautauqua excels. The water is analyzed and sanitation is the rule of order. So far there has been no illness caused by conditions at the grounds.

The directors desire to increase the sale of season tickets for 1916 to 4500. At the next meeting to be held in November the annual election of officers will take place.

CORN CUTTING NOW IN FULL SWAY IN MORGAN CO.

Corn cutting is now in full sway and there is a great demand for men because so many farmers are anxious to get corn out of the way for wheat. Ordinarily most of the wheat has been planted by this time but this has not been possible this year because of the wet weather. The late-ness, however, has the advantage of reducing the danger of damage from the Hessian fly. The government agricultural department and the various experiment stations have this season and for several years previous urged the farmers to plant their grain late in order to avoid the loss from this cause. The demand for corn cutters and the good prices paid have resulted in a number of men operating in groups. They will choose one man to arrange the details of a contract and then all will work in one field and push the work along at a very rapid rate. A gang of eight or ten good corn cutters can soon clear the corn away from the average field and make the ground available for the wheat drill.

This is the weather that calls for an overcoat; see Knoles.

Strawn's Crossing Woman's Club.

The Strawn's Crossing Woman's club met yesterday with Mrs. Andrew Harris, Jr., with a large attendance of members. As the meeting fell on Columbus day part of the exercises were in keeping with the occasion. The club sang appropriate songs and Mrs. Ben Lorton read an interesting paper on "Columbus and Early Discoveries of America." At roll call each answered with name of some early explorer or discoverer. A pleasant and profitable afternoon was spent and during the hours light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held Oct. 26th with Mrs. Frank Green.

Anniversary of Marriage Celebrated.

The eighteenth anniversary of the marriage of Harry S. Stevenson and Janet Leek at the First M. E. church, Waverly, Ill., was celebrated at the home near Little Indian station, October 12th and was attended by the groom's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevenson of Little Indian, Mrs. L. B. Turner and Mrs. Mary Wright of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Lee Skiles of Virginia all of whom were present at the wedding eighteen years ago. Other guests were Rev. and Mrs. Max B. Wiles, Mrs. N. A. Epler, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bergen, Mrs. L. M. Montgomery, Mrs. Minnie Curtis, Miss Julia M. Anderson and the son, Master Dave Stevenson.

At noon a most elaborate dinner was served, after which time was very pleasantly spent in reminiscences. Mrs. Skiles sang, "O promise me" which she had sung at the wedding.

FOOTBALL TEAMS IN HARD PRACTICE FOR SATURDAY'S GAME

Illinois College Will Play Normal at Normal and Normal High Comes Here for Game Against J. H. S.

Both football teams of the city are in hard practice, in anticipation of the games next Saturday. Illinois college eleven will go to Normal, Ill., where they will play the Normal squad. Coach Russell had a hard game last Saturday against Millikin and met defeat, although he claims that luck turned against them, and also the officials. The Normalites are expecting a much harder game Saturday against Illinois and are preparing a strong defense and offense. Illinois realizes that they are playing on strange ground and that the Normal school has always been a "game fighter," so that the fans will be given a royal treat. Coach Harmon's men came through their initial game against Lombard in good fashion and will be in prime condition for the lineup Saturday. Normal can rest assured that the game won't be over until the referee blows his whistle as far as Illinois is concerned. With both teams of the same mind some real gridiron battle can be assured.

Normal High vs. J. H. S.

Barring injuries to one or two men the Jacksonville High school team came out of the game against Carlinville last Saturday in fairly good shape. It was a tough proposition the lads met down in Macoupin county but Coach Huber has instilled the spirit of fight into the youngsters and they have been practicing consistently in anticipation of the contest against Normal Saturday on Illinois field. Last Saturday Normal was defeated by the Clinton High school 20 to 14. The Clinton team is coached by Spruit, a former student of Illinois College.

Wesleyan vs. Lombard.

Wesleyan is expecting a great battle Saturday when they go to Galesburg to meet the fast Lombard eleven. Illinois can testify to the strength of Lombard as can Coach Muhl of Wesleyan who sat in the bleachers and witnessed the Illinois-Lombard struggle. From the scores of the teams thus far it would seem that Lombard will have it on the Methodists as they play at home. In fact the Lombard-Wesleyan and Normal-Illinois games are two important events in the calendar of the Minor conference football league.

A FINE WINDOW DISPLAY Showing the Processes of Manufacturing at J. Capps & Sons.

At the clothing store of T. M. Tomlinson was a unique and remarkable display setting forth the processes of manufacturing carried on at the factory of J. Capps & Sons of this city.

First in one window were two live Merino sheep from the farm of William Crum of Litchfield, one with ordinary wool and one which had been washed. Then there were three samples of wool, unwashed, washed and dyed. The window was trimmed agriculturally with corn stalks of Jerome Culp near Woodson, and similar articles.

In the opposite window was a series of pictures setting forth the processes in a more extended way and calling attention to the fact that this establishment is the only one in the world taking the raw wool and carrying it through all the processes till it ends in garments ready to be worn by the purchaser. These pictures embrace shearing, scouring, wool dyeing, wool carding, combing, worsted tops, spinning, wool, worsted yarns weaving, finishing the fabric, cutting the cloth, tailoring department and finally the traveling salesman with his grips ready for the road with a due number of samples. The window attracted a great deal of attention during the day.

JOSEPH CLAYTON ANSWERS FINAL SUMMONS LAST NIGHT

Passed Away at the Home of His Daughter Mrs. W. A. Jenkins on at 9:25—Funeral Announcements to be Made Later.

Joseph Clayton, aged 85 years, died Tuesday evening at 9:25 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, 1249 West State street. He had been in ill health for a great many years, although his recent severe illness came on him last Friday, and he gradually declined until the end came.

For a great many years Mr. Clayton had been closely identified with the business life of Jacksonville and retired about fifteen years ago. He was a man unostentatious in his manner and sincere in everything that he did. He was widely read and took keen interest in the topics of the day. He was a deep thinker and was strong in his convictions. His friendships were sincere and although he had suffered a great deal during his illness he ever displayed a brave spirit. For the past thirty years Mr. and Mrs. Clayton had resided with their daughter, where they received ever tender administration during their declining years. Mrs. Clayton passed away last February.

The following account of his life is taken from the history of Morgan county:

Joseph Clayton was born near Huddersfield, Yorkshire, England, July 24, 1830. He was the eldest son of Matthew and Hannah Buckley Clayton, both natives of England. He was a fancy weaver by occupation, a trade which his son, Joseph learned at an early age. Matthew Clayton came to America in 1851.

April 7, 1857, Mr. Clayton with his father and ten other men made a journey together to the territory of Minnesota, taking up adjoining tracts of land near Waseca. As it was found impossible to earn any money in that region Mr. Clayton returned to the east, rejoined his wife in Uxbridge, Mass., and resumed his old occupation. From 1863 to 1874 he was designer and superintendent of the Merrimack Woolen Mills at Lowell, Mass., and in August, 1881 assumed a like position at Joseph Capps & Sons Woolen Mills at Jacksonville which he continued to hold for about five years. He then formed a partnership with his son-in-law, W. A. Jenkins in the retail grocery business and later (1895) in a wholesale grocery.

On March 31, 1857 Mr. Clayton was united in marriage in Uxbridge, Mass., with Urania Taft, a daughter of Azra and Susan (Keith) Taft, who died in 1865, leaving two daughters, Susan, wife of Clarence Woodbury of Waseca, Minn., and Ellen M., wife of W. A. Jenkins of Jacksonville. In 1872 Mr. Clayton was married to Harriet A. Chase of Pelham, N. H., and their union resulted in two children, Annie and Maude.

Mr. Clayton is survived by four daughters, Mrs. W. A. Jenkins and Misses Annie and Maude of this city, and Mrs. Susan Woodbury of Waseca, Minn. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Harriet McAnany in Massachusetts. One sister, Mrs. Emma Haigh of Lawrence, Mass., died recently. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. William Bourn died at her home Thursday evening, Oct. 7, at 6:10 o'clock and the funeral was held from Shiloh church Sunday forenoon at 10 o'clock. Burial was made at Ebenezer cemetery. Mrs. Bourn had been for many years a faithful member of Shiloh Methodist church and was a teacher in the Sunday school. She was a devoted mother and a loving wife, never tiring of lending a helping hand to the sick or needy. Always kind, she had at all times an encouraging word for those about her. She fought the battle of life bravely and after spoke of being ready and willing to depart this life.

The services Sunday were in charge of Rev. Mr. Davis. Mrs. Bourn's favorite songs were sung by the choir of Literberry Christian church and as "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Saved by Grace" filled the building with their sweet tones, all were touched with the day's solemnity. Many beautiful flowers were there to grace the bier.

IN MEMORIAM.
"A precious one from us has gone,
"A voice we loved is still;
"A place is vacant in our home,
"Which never can be filled.

"God in His wisdom has recalled
"The boon His life hath given,
"And though her body mold away,
"Her soul rests safe in Heaven."

FILE MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEF IN ANTI-SUFFRAGE CASE

Objections to Motion Are Expected to be Presented Today.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 12.—Motion for leave to file a brief in the Macomb, Ill. anti-suffrage case now before the Supreme Court of Illinois was filed today by Chicago attorneys representing Matthew Berringer.

It is expected objections to the motion will be presented tomorrow by attorneys representing the appellees, Josie Westfall and Albert B. Fuhr, of Macomb. Westfall was elected police judge of Macomb with the assistance of women voters. Had male votes alone been counted his opponent, Dean Franklin, would have been elected to the office. The suit questioning the constitutionality of the woman's suffrage act passed by the Illinois legislature, was then filed by Franklin.

The Chicago attorneys, Levy Mayer, Alfred S. Austrian and Benjamin P. Alschuler, contend that the upper court in sustaining the constitutionality of the suffrage act did not pass directly on its merits but simply stood upon other decisions in which it was held that the legislature had the power to confer suffrage relative to officers seated by the legislature.

DR. ALLEN M. KING RETURNS FROM SOUTH.

Dr. Allen M. King returned yesterday from a visit in the south. He spent part of his time at Fort Davis, Tex., with Harold King, also at the town of Mofa, 26 miles inland. Here many refugees from Mexico came and were taken into toll by the Americans. One band of them had 3,500 Mauser rifles made in Germany with the Mexican stamp on them. They were sold to the people from 50c to $2.00 and would easily list at from $20 to $30 apiece. Gold and silver inlaid swords were also sold at ridiculous prices. Some Villa money was also brought back by the doctor. It has depreciated in value so much that it took 1000 pesos to pay for six men's dinner recently in El Paso.

Dr. King returned via New Orleans and witnessed the great damage done by the storm, wreckage for miles, could scarcely be thought of unless seen from one's own eyes. He was on the second train to pass over the I. C. road after the storm. He found Ed Bogle at Fort Davis and he is doing well and much improved in health. In all Dr. King was gone three weeks and reports a very interesting time.

PUBLIC UTILITY BOARDS MEET IN SAN FRANCISCO

Twenty-Seventh Annual Convention Is In Progress—Important Themes to Be Considered.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—The 27th annual convention of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners, which includes all public utility boards of the state and territories of the United States and of Canada, opened here this morning. Members of all the utility boards are present, and the Interstate Commerce Commission is represented by Judson C. Clements, Prof. E. W. Bemis and Joseph W. Folk.

So many are the subjects and so numerous the speakers, the speech-making is cut down to five-minute addresses. Each state commission will present the most important development of the year relative to the work of its body. The methods, rather than the accomplishments, will be the leading theme of the convention. By exchanging experiences and discussing the various methods pursued in achieving public control and supervision of the railroads, much is learned by the commissioners, and the annual convention tends to establish a uniformity in the work in the various states.

The convention will be in session each day until Saturday. The big event of the convention is the dinner to be given tomorrow evening. Three speakers will travel a total of 14,000 miles to talk fifteen minutes each at this dinner, which is given by the California Commission to the National Association. The speakers are Theodore N. Vail, the famous financier and president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., Samuel Insull, president of the Commonwealth Edison Co., of Chicago, and Warren S. Stone, of Cleveland, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Others who will speak at the banquet are former Governor Joseph W. Folk, of Missouri, Commissioner Judson C. Clements, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, William Sprague, president of the Southern Pacific road, Governor Hiram Johnson and Lieutenant Governor Eschelman.

The government control and regulation of railroads will be discussed from all angles by these speakers. The attitude that there is too much control will be explained; the complications incident to state and federal control boards operating their restrictions over the same lines will be enumerated; the claim that control should be further extended will be defended; and even the proposition of government ownership of the railway lines as the ideal monopoly will be expounded by able advocates of government ownership.

One of the principal topics of the speakers is the valuation of public utilities, especially railroads. This is one of the biggest problems before the American public, and every utility commission in the country is attempting to solve it. Two years ago congress passed a law providing for the valuation by the federal government of all the steam rail lines in the country. This tremendous work is now under way, but it will take many years and will cost many millions to complete it. Recently the Interstate Commerce Commission gave a hearing to the railroad representatives in Washington, and at that hearing the railroads urged the commission to cooperate with them in making the valuations. They made the claim that valuations should take into account non-existent elements of value, such as the organization, promotion and exploitation costs attendant on building a railroad.

The convention will prepare a brief, outlining the attitude of the utility commissions on the questions which the railroads have raised regarding valuation of their properties.

MEETINGS AT LITERBERRY. Rev. C. G. Cantrall, pastor of the Christian church at Literberry, was in the city yesterday and gave a good report of the meetings being conducted for boys and girls in his church at Literberry.

The entire department made the run when they arrived the flames had been subdued. No particular damage was done.

DON'T SCOLD, MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look at Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, and sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and read that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

MAUVAISTERRE SCHOOL UNDER GOOD MANAGEMENT

School Property Is Attractive and Student Body Interested in Various Subjects of Study.

One of the most attractive school properties in the rural part of Morgan county is that of the Mauvaisterre school, six miles northeast of Jacksonville. The directors of this school are surely to be congratulated on the manner in which they have performed their duties. Fortunately the school building is well located and the lot is reasonably large and well supplied with shade trees. The building is in reasonably good repair with out and within it presents an attractive appearance. The walls are papered and the supplies are such as aid in the work in hand. This place is heated by a furnace in the basement and though the day of the visit the writer was warm and hardly any fire was needed still it was easy to see that the heating apparatus evidently does its work well.

The pupils are a wide awake company of children and doubtless don't let a teacher have any time to devote to anything but the work in hand during school hours. The young people were good to answer questions asked though some were a bit bashful in the presence of a stranger yet about every inquiry propounded brought forth a reply from some one of the school.

The visitor especially desired them also to ask him questions and this they did to a considerable degree and their inquiries were indicative of intelligence and a desire for knowledge.

The directors of the school are Messrs. E. O. Greene, J. W. Davies and Greg Tisdell.

The teachers are Misses Irene Phillips and Alice Gunn.

The pupils are: Hugh Lacey, Marie Wallbaum, Winnifred Hicks, Walter Reeve, Walter Goolsby, Lewis Goolsby, Mable Sturgeon, Vivian Sturgeon, Wilson Davies Russell Burmeister, Eugene Hellewell, Willie Wallbaum, Dwight Green, Clarence Proffitt, Gertrude Wallbaum, Anna Wallbaum, Florence Hicks, Troy Roach, Arthur Strubbe, Emma Coe, James Hicks, Dortha Davis, Anthony Wallbaum, Edward Strubbe, Miles Standish, Allen Standish, Edward Standish, Wilburn Kennitt, Albert Roach, Marshall Roach, Alfred Coe, Loretta Tompkins, Charles Goolsby, Amanda Strubbe, George Mathews, John Stiehl, Belya Hicks, Essie Roach, Wilburn Kennitt, Louise Wallbaum, Rose Wallbaum, Amy Smith, Mayme Hicks, Lloyd Burmeister.

GOLDFISH SHOW IS LATEST NOVELTY.

New York, Oct. 12.—The very latest thing in shows is the goldfish show, which opened in Brooklyn today, under the auspices of the American Federation of Goldfish fanciers. There are ribbons and gold medals for the prize fish, and the competition is keen and exciting. Fish lovers from many sections have sent their choicest specimens. To give the addresses a fishy nature, there are speakers on the methods of capturing specimens for aquariums. The federation seeks to promote the humane handling of goldfish, the study of their diseases, and the elimination of fake fish from the market.

WHEN LAFAYETTE CAME TO WASHINGTON.

Beautiful Girls Welcomed Him Ninety-One Years Ago Today.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Ninety-one years ago today, when the Potomac valley is at its prettiest, General Lafayette entered the new federal city he had never seen before. It was during his visit to America, and he was being feted by the people to whom he had given the best years of his life.

As the Marquis passed through Maryland he was greeted on all sides, and was escorted to the capital by many organizations. Reaching Washington, he was driven in a varouche. Grooms in white livery led the four handsome white horses which drew the conveyance, and his escort was over two miles long.

On the line of march the distinguished warrior was met and welcomed by twenty-five of the most beautiful young women of the city, attired in white muslin and blue scarfs, their heads decorated with red flowers. These maidens represented the states of the union, which were then 24 in number, and the District of Columbia. President James Monroe paid marked honor to the distinguished visitor. Many brilliant entertainments were given in his honor.

ON LONG AUTO TRIP.

A party of automobile tourists was in the city yesterday on the way to Pasadena, Cal. They were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Emery and son, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Emery and son. The former were traveling in a Detroit and the latter in a Hupmobile. They started from Pasadena July 27, and made the distance of thirty-eight hundred miles to Hillsboro, N. H., in about six weeks. They have been visiting relatives in that vicinity for some time and are now on their journey home, having started two weeks ago. They have a camping outfit with them and are not dependent upon hotel facilities in the cities through which they pass. They started from here to Louisiana and thence will go to Kansas City and strike the Santa Fe trail.

VISITING HIS BROTHER.

Thomas H. Ball of Virden, a venerable gentleman and veteran of the late war, is in the city visiting his brother, James Ball. Mr. Ball was a member of Co. D, 114th Ill. Infantry, the regiment for a time commanded by Col. J. W. Judy of Tallula. B. R. Pshaw was sutler of the regiment and Mr. Ball also knows a number in this vicinity who were his comrades.

UNDERTAKERS IN CONVENTION.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—Leaving behind their sombre blacks, the undertakers have come to the exposition from all sections of the United States, and they opened today the annual convention of the National Association of Funeral Directors. The delegates show that they know how to

ACIDS IN STOMACH SOUR THE FOOD AND CAUSE INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapiesin" Fixes Sour Gassy, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Pape's Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too. If you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute and rid yourself of stomach misery and indigestion in five minutes.

Rippling Rhymes

Wet Weather.

The rain still falls, whenever it can, and breaks the heart of modern man. The raindrops slug me in the eye, and from my whiskers wash the dye, they spoil the colors of my shirt, and still they splash and drop and squirt! One fact keeps running in my brain—that people used to pray for rain! The streets are running ankle deep, and in the basement wavelets creep; the roof is leaking and the walls are dripping, as the torrent falls. The water streams adown the pane—and people used to pray for rain! The windows in their frames are jammed, and can't be raised and can't be slammed; the doors won't shut, or, if they will, they stick like beeswax to the sill, and one must find a crowbar, then, if he would open them again. Such weather gives a man a pain; and people used to pray for rain. I bless the weather man, his luck; the drawers in all my desks are stuck; the grass is drowned upon the lawn, the flowers to sailors' graves have gone. One fact is driving me insane: The people used to pray for rain!

Washing Won't Rid Head Of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among these things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." It is a penetrating liquid and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy. Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.

"Mother's Friend" may therefore be considered as indirectly having a splendid influence upon the early disposition of the future generation.

Whatever induces to the ease and comfort of the mother should unquestionably leave its impress upon the nervous system of the baby.

At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century it must be a remedy that women have learned the great value of.

No more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest the daily use of "Mother's Friend" during the interval of expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradford Regulator Co., 502 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

RED SOX DOWN PHILLIES FOR THE THIRD SUCCESSIVE TIME

NEED ONLY ONE MORE WIN TO CAPTURE CHAMPIONSHIP

Scene Shifts Back to Philadelphia Today, Where Alexander is Expected to Pitch—Lack of Power to Drive in Runs Leaves Eight Phillies Stranded on Bases.

TUESDAY'S RECEIPTS AND ATTENDANCE.

Attendance 41,996
Total receipts $82,046.50
National commission's share $8,204.65
Players' share $44,305.11
Each club's share $14,763.37

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Only one winning game stands tonight between the Boston Americans and the baseball championship of the world. For the third successive time they defeated the Philadelphia Nationals today. The score was 2 to 1.

Tomorrow the scene shifts back to Philadelphia where Alexander is expected to be called upon to pitch his third game of the series. If he should prove a winner tomorrow the sixth game of the series will be played in Boston on Thursday.

Alexander is Phillies Last Hope. Alexander is the last hope of the Phillies. He won from the Sox last Friday and was defeated yesterday only by a fierce battling rally in the last of the ninth. The Phillies themselves feel that if they can give the big Nebraskan any sort of offensive support he will put across a victory tomorrow that at least will give the National Leaguers a fighting chance in the series.

The Philadelphia batters took kindly to Ernest Shore's offerings today and made more hits than they had registered in any one of the three previous conflicts. The power to drive in the runs was lacking however, and eight of the visitors were left stranded on the paths.

Cravath Makes Long Drive.

But "Gavvy" Cravath sent Lewis back to the left field fence again today to catch a drive that on the Philadelphia grounds would have been a hit into the stands and good for the circuit. A little luck in placing these long hits tomorrow would make all the difference in the world behind a pitcher of Alexander's ability and there are many students of the game tonight who do not share the confidence of the Red Sox that tomorrow's contest will be the last. The Phillies made a threat in their half of the eighth because Tris Speaker again had trouble with the sun and let Cravath's single bound over his head, the runner pulling up at third with a three bagger to his credit. Two were out and the fans were not inclined to take the situation seriously until Luderus slammed out his third single of the day and sent Cravath scampering over the plate.

Dugue went into run for Luderus and further complicated the situation by stealing second.

Whitted with a single might have tied the score, but his fast liner went directly at the Boston pitcher who knocked it down and threw the Philly left fielder out at first.

Phillies Lack Driving Power.

In both the first and second innings today Philadelphia had runners on second base with only one out and in neither case were they advanced as far as third. In the first Bancroft was left at the keystone sack when Paskert and Cravath both struck out. In the second Luderus led off with a single, was sacrificed to second by Whitted and left there. The lack of driving power at critical moments has been a deciding factor against the Phillies.

Boston was lucky to score its first run today. Barry walked to begin the third inning. Cady laid down a bunt which ordinarily would have been an easy out but Chalmers in the box for the Phillies slipped as he went for the ball and could not recover until Cady was safe at first. Shore sacrificed Barry to third and Cady to second and the former scored a moment later when Hooper was credited with an infield hit on a ball which Niehoff should have gotten.

It looked here as if the Sox were in position to make enough runs in this one inning to decide the contest but the attack failed.

Scott popped a foul and Speaker was out on an easy roller down the first base line.

Lewis Drives in Winning Run.

The winning run came over in the sixth when Hoblitzel singled and raced for home on Duff Lewis' double to the left field fence. Lewis had driven in the winning run yesterday and he was easily the hero of the crowd today. His defensive work in the field this afternoon was little short of wonderful. He was credited with six putouts and each chance was a difficult one. Up against the fence one moment he was dashing toward the infield at another to snatch a ball from his shoe top.

George Chalmers, the third Philly pitcher to fall before the hickory sticks of the American League champions, buried a fair game of ball, allowed only eight hits, Hoblitzel leaping on his slants for three of that number.

Players Will Divide $44,305.50.

Today's game was the last in which the players share the receipts. A total of $144,399.50 awaits division among the members of the two teams. This is the share allowed under the National Commission rules. The winning team will receive $88,939.70 or sixty per cent of the total, as twenty three players of each team are eligible contestants in the series, the individual share will amount to $3,779.58 each, if the division is equal. The players themselves are the authorities in deciding how the money shall be disposed of and may reduce the allowance to utility men who have figured little in the activities of the league season or of the series, by vote among themselves.

To the losers will go $57,959.80 or 23 shares of $2,519.12 each, if the division is equal.

The players profits this year are not equal to those of 1911 and 1912 the record crowds at the two games played on Braves field failing to offset the restricted attendance at the Philadelphia park.

Total Receipts Are $268,332.50.

During these first four games 123,940 persons have watched the play of the teams. They have paid $268,332.50 for their places. Of this sum the National commission will receive $26,833.25. Each club treasury gains $48,299.85 from these games and will be further enriched as will the commission's strongbox by the receipts at subsequent contests in which the players have no financial interest.

Tomorrow Manager Carrigan is expected to send George Foster to the mound. He pitched a brilliant game in Philadelphia last Saturday, winning it with his own timely hitting. "Babe" Ruth, the big Boston lefthander, has not yet had a chance in the series however, and Carrigan may switch to him if the big fellow seems right.

Pull Fast Double Play.

The defense at Shore's back was of a far higher character than in the opening struggle when the Red Sox still were unsteady and the breaks went against them. Both the infield and the outfield moved smoothly and swiftly today, cutting off high and low hit balls and when the occasion arose showing the same keen playing judgment which marked their work during the closing months of the pennant season. An example of this quick thinking and team play occurred in the seventh inning when, with Chalmers on first as a result of his Texas League, Stock smashed a hard bouncer to Scott at short, who scooped the ball up and relayed it to Barry at second for a force out. Barry then made a quick throw to Hoblitzel to catch the batter but the ball slipped and rolled to the grandstand boxes, hitting the concrete wall and rebounding to the coach's box. Manager Moran, who was coaching back of first base, sent Stock down to second on the play but Hoblitzel sprinted after the ball and by a quick throw to Barry who was waiting at second, caught Stock five feet in front of the sack.

In contrast to this clever turning of what appeared to be a bad slip into a last double play was one made in the third inning in which the Red Sox scored their first run of the game. With Barry on first, due to a pass, Cady attempted to lay down a bunt. The ball, hit a trifle too hard, rolled to the right of the box and both Chalmers and Luderus tried to field it. Chalmers slipped just as he stopped and fell full length, covering the ball completely. Luderus was well into the diamond and when Chalmers finally obtained the sphere, Cady was sprinting for first, where the bag was unprotected and the attempted sacrifice went as a hit.

Among the National Leaguers, Luderus, as the result of his three safe drives today, is in the lead with a total of five hits in fourteen trips to the plate. Bancroft still holds second position with three hits. Burns, Cravath and Stock are grouped with two hits each.

The Red Sox as a team have made seven runs and thirty-two hits and the Phillies six runs and nineteen hits in the four games of the series.

"LANDING DAY" OF COLUMBUS CELEBRATED BY K. OF C.

State Deputy W. N. Brown Heard in Address Appropriate to the Occasion—Musical Program Given.

Knights of Columbus hall presented a lively scene last evening on the occasion of the anniversary of the discovery of the new world. A large and merry throng filled the hall completely and the evening was most enjoyably spent. The music was of a superior quality and immensely enjoyed while all the evening was a time of merriment and happiness. After the formal program was over dancing was enjoyed.

The principal number of the program was an address by State Deputy W. N. Brown of Chicago, a forceful speaker and a logical orator who held his audience spellbound during his speech. A few thoughts of the fine address are given:

"This is day of organization and a time when men can combine for their welfare and that of society, church and state. Organizations properly conducted are a means of great good to all concerned and should be well encouraged and also thoroughly understood. The noble order of Knights of Columbus has for its prime object the idea of paying fitting tribute to the memory of the intrepid explorer who astonished the old world by sailing persistently westward till he discovered land."

"It is strictly a fraternal order wholly divorced from politics and devoted ardently to inculcating in its members a sense of duty and obligation to God and country. It is not oath bound except to defend the constitution of the United States. A Knight of Columbus is not permitted to take an oath nor is it necessary that he should do so."

"Waves of religious persecution and prejudice have from time to time attacked it but it has come out triumphant in every ordeal and unscathed through every fire. It is bound by its obligation to see to it that every man, woman and child has a fair chance in life without any restrictions on account of religious faith or belief. Ignorance and prejudice have tried in vain to attack and injure the order but it is impregnable."

"Ignorance of American history will account for much that has been done in this way for both in this land and in European countries Roman Catholics have always been loyal to the land in which they live and they ever set an example of faithfulness to public and private duty, to obligations to God and the state that all will do well to follow."

"It also embraces fraternal insurance features which are highly commendable and founded on common sense. The member of this order knows he has friends and an excellent fraternity which will stand by him in times of distress and by his family in hours of trial. The order only needs to be known to be appreciated."

Trademarked - Advertised Merchandise

BY R. V. HOLLAND

Copyrighted by The Farmers' Review, Chicago.

I HAPPENED to meet a man not long ago who was bewailing the fact that one of his farm implements, for which he had urgent need, was lying idle waiting a new part that had to be ordered "out of town."

Reason? The implement in question had been bought from a distant house, and not being a standard make, the local dealer was unable to supply a part to match the broken one, which the local blacksmith could not mend on account of a "bad place in the metal."

Work dependent on the machine had already been held up three days. Appraisal of the time lost—according to the owner's computation—amounted to approximately $20, to say nothing of the inconvenience to which he was put.

Investigation on my part developed the information that the owner figured that he was saving about $6.50 on the original purchase price by sending away for the implement. The local merchant stoutly maintained, however, that the difference in price was fully represented in quality.

In justice to all parties, will say that the broken part was replaced without cost to the purchaser.

At any rate, the time lost waiting for necessary repairs much more than counterbalanced the difference in price. Then, too, there is always a possibility of similar accidents occurring in the future.

Well-meaning retailers will not expect you to patronize them unless they are in position to extend you the same inducements in the way of quality, style and price offered elsewhere. That your local merchants are in position to render you more and better service than those at a distance, there is no doubt. And service is an element worthy of much consideration.

If you will demand standard goods of established worth, you will invariably be assured of getting full value for the amount of money expended.

Establishing favorable reputation and demand for any particular brand of merchandise is an expensive process. As the expense incurred cannot be added to selling prices it must be absorbed by volume of sales—steady demand by satisfied consumers.

You can buy standard products to as good advantage locally as anywhere else, and your money spent in your home stores will benefit you and your neighbors in many ways.

Eliminating the element of sentiment, it is to your advantage, from a financial standpoint, to keep in your own community as much of the money produced there as possible.

LAND O'NOD STORIES

By Howard T. Krapp.

THE LITTLE GIANTS.

As Billy Boy By Bo Bum and his little friend Tinker Toedle Tee trudged along the broad highway the ants had built from the harvest fields to their underground city, they met hundreds of the Little People hurrying along in the opposite direction, while whole troops of workers constantly passed them homeward bound with seeds or cookie crumbs clutched tightly in their jaws or slung across their backs. Several were staggering under loads that weighed a great deal more than themselves.

These little chaps are the strongest fellows alive," said Tinker. "A horse or an elephant is weak compared with a full grown ant, when you consider the load each can carry in comparison to their size. Why Billy Boy, I have seen an ant dragging a pebble that was as heavy a load for it as a ton of coal would be for a man. I don't know what under the sun it was going to do with the pebble, but he had found it in the harvest fields and was dragging it home. It was just as though your father walked ten miles with a two thousand pound load on his back. Do you think he could do that?"

"I'm sure he couldn't," replied Billy, looking at the little insects with new interest. "I don't believe he could carry a hundred pounds that far, let alone two thousand pounds."

"Then according to that, an ant is at least twenty times as strong as a man when you consider the difference in their sizes, but when you reach their underground city, you will see that they possess many traits much more wonderful than their great strength. Strength alone, Billy Boy, never carried either an ant or an elephant or a man very far in this world. It's brains that count, and you don't know them you will find that the ants are mighty smart fellows."

"And as I told you before, they do their work without being told. No one directs their labors and there is no boss over them to see that they do their work right. Each ant has its own task and goes ahead and does it without paying any attention to the others."

NAPLES.

Our farmers are busy plowing and sowing wheat. Some are almost done sowing while many will not be through for a week or so. The land works fine now, and wheat is going in good shape, and the first snow is growing nicely. Most all the corn to be cut is now in the shock. Those that have orchards and apples to gather have been, and will be, for several days yet very busy barreling and shipping their fruit by both rail and river. This is a banner fruit year.

Harvey Green is buying grain also Eugene Simpson for his company at Pekin. Not more than half the wheat here has been threshed. What was threshed before seeding was mostly tough and damp and not good quality. After seeding when threshing is resumed it is expected the sample will be much better.

Our day school is stopped, also our Sunday school, league and preaching services, till further notice, and a number of homes quarantined, on account of scarlet fever. A number have been quite sick and some of these grown people and parents but no deaths to date have occurred.

I think some of these boys and girls would about as soon have the scarlet fever of the small pox, as to have to stay in the house and yard a week or two, and no playmates but the dog.

The river is falling. The boats make their regular trips up Sundays and Thursdays, down Mondays and Fridays. Our genial fisherman Ab. Ellis, keeps on hand the best of fish, also eels; now anyone that don't like eels don't like snakes, but take your choice of nicely dressed cat fish right off the ice.

Our Sheriff, Irvin Coultas, was here one day this week. James Hamilton who now lives in Bluffs was on our streets Saturday.

W. G. Pine recently sold a farm to Harry Ratigan of Exeter, for spot cash.

Joe Mayes is postmaster general here and seems to be getting along just fine.

Wm. Gobble lost one of his horses Sunday.

Miss Margaret Green is teaching the Maple Grove school and she is a splendid teacher.

Carl Ritter works with his brother in law, John M. Pine in the grain office at Bluffs and between railroad and auto is at home every night.

PROMINENT LABOR MAN TESTIFIES

State Federation of Labor Official Makes Statement of Condition.

PRAISES TANLAC.

Prominent people in nearly every capacity, are daily testifying to the merits of Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" now being introduced in Jacksonville. Here is what John M. Irish, vice president of the state Federation of Labor, who resides at the Foy Hotel in Peoria, Ill., has to say about Tanlac and the benefit he derived from the use of the medicine.

"Tanlac has proved a wonderful remedy in my case. Previous to the time I obtained relief through this preparation, I suffered a great deal with my stomach, which put my whole system out of order. I became quite nervous and was unable to obtain any great amount of rest at night. It was impossible for me to eat heartily without feeling most uncomfortable afterwards. When I would get up in the morning there seemed to be a great load on my stomach, which made me feel sick all over. Finally I lost all appetite for food and nothing seemed to taste good to me."

"I was looking over the morning paper recently and noticed where a man who had stomach trouble had been benefited by Tanlac. I went to Sulliff & Case, where the medicine is being sold in Peoria, and bought a bottle and began taking the medicine as directed. As I said before, the medicine has brought me great relief. I feel better in several ways. My appetite has returned and I can now eat a big meal without suffering the effects of indigestion. The old stuffy feeling that was such an annoyance to me has disappeared and I am able to obtain a good sleep at night. I seem to have new strength and my nerves are more quiet than heretofore. I think Tanlac is a good medicine for a trouble like mine and can recommend it to anyone who is suffering with a similar ailment."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," that brought such relief to Mr. Irish is now being sold in Jacksonville at Coover & Shreve.—Adv.

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGSON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—Mrs. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ANA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation. As I had something growing in my left side, I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, O.

A BIG AUCTION LOT SALE

ON THE PREMISES

AT JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS,

Monday, October 18th, at 2 P.M.

Having acquired the Andras Homestead, extending from South Main street to East street, we are now having it platted and subdivided into attractive building lots and will sell them at auction on the above date.

Rain or Shine and on Easy Terms

One-third Cash, Balance One and Two Years

The plot of ground is bordered on three sides with brick streets, having also adequate sewer connections, and accessible to all parts of the city by good street car service. It is located near enough to the business center to satisfy the most exacting business man and far enough away to enjoy the quietude and silence of a good residence section.

Every person acquainted with real estate in Jacksonville knows that these lots will never become less valuable than they are now. It is the only vacant ground near the business section of a city with 18000 population and still growing. This property has been in demand for many years, but not until now could it be bought and an opportunity for the investor, the home-seeker and the speculator will be offered for the first time on this coveted plot of ground.

Mr. Farmer: This is your opportunity to come in and get in on the ground floor; instead of waiting and buying from the other fellows at a big profit; you expect to come to the city and spend the remainder of your days to get the benefit of good schools, good churches; etc. To miss this opportunity will be the regret of your life.

To the Young Man who wants to take the first step toward getting a start for a home, this is a chance. The terms will be easy. Buy your lot and the rest will be easy.

Don't think Jacksonville will ever quit growing. The population will steadily increase. The business section will spread and real estate increase in value. Four great railways, giving Jacksonville thirty trains daily. Twenty-five miles of paved streets. Four banks, giving the entire county the very best of banking facilities. Twenty-three churches and eighteen schools and colleges. Three great state institutions, speak for the perpetuity of the city prosperity. One hundred and twenty-five concerns manufacturing various articles and products. A wide awake chamber of commerce, pushing Jacksonville forward. These are only a few of the many things which can be said about Jacksonville, "The Athens of the west." Her well kept lawns, handsome homes and beautiful parks have given her the well earned name, "City Beautiful."

Why not invest in real estate, which promises so much for the investor? The population of the United States doubles every 27 years and real estate can only go in one direction, and that is higher and higher. Real estate is the best investment on earth, and city lots are the cream—and these lots are the cream of Jacksonville.

Come Out and Hear the Great Auctioneer, Col. C. P. Martin, and Your Distinguished Local Auctioneer, Col. Cox.

A Big Band Concert will Take Place on the Ground and Many Other Things to Enliven the Occasion and Entertain.

Ladies, You are Especially Invited. The Occasion Will be Incomplete Without You.

SUPERINTENDENTS OF INSTITUTIONS FORM PRELIMINARY ORGANIZATION

Work Begun in Springfield Will be Completed at Meeting in Danville Soon—Must Attend Psychopathic Institute.

The association of state institution superintendents, which met with the state board of administration Monday and Tuesday, formed a preliminary organization and selected a committee to draft by-laws and formulate a constitution. The association will hold its next meeting in Danville with the state charities commission, Saturday Oct. 23, at which time a report of the committee will be heard, a permanent organization formed and a definite name fixed upon. Succeeding meetings will be held quarterly.

The superintendents, it is understood, will hereafter take a course in the State Psychopathic hospital at Kankakee. Two weeks will be required for the courses and it is expected that the order will go into effect soon.

The sessions at Springfield were concluded at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the superintendents of the three Jacksonville institutions arrived via the 5:13 o'clock Wabash. The association recommends that the quarterly meetings be held at the various state hospitals at the same time as the sessions of the Illinois State Hospitals' association, giving the superintendents opportunity in this way to meet and co-operate with the several medical staffs.

MUCH REAL ESTATE HAS CHANGED HANDS RECENTLY

Easier money conditions and the general good crops in Morgan county are possibly the greatest contributing causes to activity in real estate circles. Agents are receiving more inquiries than has already been recorded. Charles E. Spiker, of Sinclair, has purchased from Charles M. Boyer eighty acres of land a mile and a half from Waverly. Mr. Spiker intends this for a home but as he has a lease on the farm where he is now located for another year, he has leased the Boyer farm to Mr. Boyer until March 16, 1917. The farm is splendidly improved and a good quality of land, and the purchase price was $200 an acre. E. M. Henry has sold eighty acres of land located southwest of Franklin to Charles E. Lashmet, of Winchester, at $165 an acre. Mr. Lashmet is to take possession of the property the first of March. Joseph Bourn has purchased from A. J. Harding one hundred and thirty-two acres of land north of Woodson at $150 an acre and possession is to be given March 1. All these sales were made by the Charles H. Story agency.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 12.—A hospital for the treatment of trachoma has been established at Welch, McDowell county, by the West Virginia health council, with the cooperation of the United States health service. F. P. LINDSEY WINS GOLF TOURNAMENT

SECURES LOVING CUP OFFERED TO VICTOR.

Large Number of Enthusiasts Participate in Game at Links—Blind Bogey Placed at 66—List of Players and Their Scores.

Frank P. Lindsey was the winner of the silver loving cup given by W. B. Miser at the golf tournament held at the Links in Nichols park Tuesday. The players started at 9 o'clock, but so many came in the afternoon that affairs were congested for a while and some came too late to get a start. Dr. J. W. Hargrove, W. D. Gates, J. D. Cain, Miss Strandberg, Miss Helen Obermeyer, Miss Eleanor Capps, Miss Ethel Wylder and Leo Johnson could not finish on account of darkness. Leo Johnson was still playing somewhere between Nos. 2 and 6 when the judges came home.

The Blind Bogey was set at 66 and each chose his own handicap which was deducted at the end of the competition of the eighteen holes. Mr. Lindsey who won the tournament, at one time was grounds keeper at the old golf links, so has had some experience in swinging the clubs. The players paired off and considerable enthusiasm was manifested among the golfers. F. E. Farrell and T. J. Brennan had charge of the day and were on hand at all times to instruct the players and conduct the tournament. The management feels very grateful for their assistance.

The tournament had the effect of renewing a greater interest in the pastime. As the season is getting rather late it is not probable that much more playing will be done this year but it's revival in the spring is already assured.

The records made yesterday follow:

SECRETARY LANSING CONFERS WITH CARRANZA REPRESENTATIVE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Secretary Lansing conferred today with Eliseo Arredondo, representative here of General Carranza. It was their first meeting since the Pan-American diplomats decided that recognition should be extended to the Carranza government in Mexico. The secretary described the conference later as a general talk on the situation and said no new steps had been taken, as he still was awaiting responses from South and Central American governments.

Recognition in all probability will be given formally by the United States, however, within another week. It very likely will take the form of a note which would be presented to Mr. Arredondo here. His reception today was of an unofficial character.

ASSURE PEACE CONGRESS THAT WORLD PEACE IS YET A FANTASY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Count Okuma, Japanese premier and Dr. Ng Poon Chew, a Chinese editor of the international peace congress to-day that world peace was yet a fantasy and will be until the military order of things is changed. In a message to the congress, Count Okuma said there was no hope for peace "so long as there exist nations or individuals who believe or exalt themselves as absolutely superior to others, and to assert that superiority do not hesitate to appeal to material forces."

Selfishness, jingoism, yellow journalism and politicians are chiefly responsible for misunderstandings that have existed between the United States and Japan, said Mr. Kiyi Sue Inui, a lecturer of the Japan society of America.

J. L. HASTINGS RETURNS FROM SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

"Bible in Every Home and Everybody in Sunday School" Slogan of Union—Dr. G. P. Williams Speaks.

J. L. Hastings, of this city. Sunday school evangelist, has been in Bloomington attending the fifth annual convention of the American Sunday School Missions Union of the Lake district of Illinois, Wisconsin and northern Michigan. The convention was held at the Y. M. C.
A. building with Supt. W. W. Johnson of Chicago presiding.

At the opening session addresses of welcome were given by Rev. W.
H. Arbogast and H. O. Stone in behalf of the churches, the Y. M. C.
A. and Sunday school. They pointed out the benefits derived from the Sunday school union missionary work, which is an un denominational effort to establish Bible schools in communities where no religious services are being held.

The general slogan of the union and of the convention is "A Bible in every home, and every child and every person in some Sunday school."

The following figures were quoted:
"When fifty-eight per cent of the population is rural, sixty-five per cent in Illinois are tenants whose average stay in one community is two years. Ninety per cent of the present day successful men in commercial and professional life come from the country, and as multitudes do not go to village, town or city of the work, which is ninety-one years old, becomes apparent, being undenominational and interdenominational."

One of the most helpful addresses delivered was that by Dr. G. P.
Williams of Philadelphia, secretary of missions, whose theme was, "The Religious Unrest in City and Country." He gave some very helpful ideas on religious work in rural communities. In discussing various features of the work following one of the addresses, Mr. Hastings of this city made a report on conditions he has found in this field. An illustrated lecture by Rev. Bertram Zelner, of Sycamore, was one of the most helpful features of the convention, and the address by Supt. E. B.
Stevenson of the southwestern district on "Forces That Move", was very strong.

The conference will close today and it has been one of such spiritual interest that it has been extremely helpful to all those in attendance.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIS-CUSSES QUESTION OF ENTER-TAINMENT.

Plan Now Underway to Oil State Road to Sangamon county line Presented—Transportation Committee Makes Report—Passavant Hospital Campaign.

The regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the association rooms last evening.

Many matters of vital importance to the community came before the meeting for discussion and the busy session was one full of interest.

Mayor H. J. Rodgers, chairman of the Public Affairs committee, called attention to the forthcoming campaign for the Passavant Hospital. He spoke of the great importance to the community of the two splendid local hospitals and his remarks were enthusiastically seconded by the directorate. A resolution was presented pledging the active support of the Chamber of Commerce to the campaign committee.

A report was heard from the Transportation Committee relative to the interstate freight rates. Secretary Weber read a communication from the Creditors' Adjustment company of St. Louis, Mo., a firm making a specialty of traffic and rate cases in which they agreed to handle the case for a strictly contingent fee of one thousand dollars. This offer was made to the local committee as a result of several months of negotiations and it was the sense of the directors that the proposition was a fair one.
The rate at present is 117 per cent of the New York-Chicago rate and it is the intention to secure a rate of 113 on a par with Springfield. It is estimated that this decrease will save the retailers and consumers of Jacksonville over 20,000 dollars annually.
The matter was discussed thoroughly and referred to the Transportation committee of which Mr. F. H. Bode is chairman, with power to act.

Secretary Weber reported on his efforts to secure the 1916 convention of the Illinois Music Teachers' Association for Jacksonville, and a communication was read from the secretary of the organization asking for a guarantee of one thousand tickets as a basis for the program.

This association has an average attendance of from 500 to 600 delegates and conduct a four day musical program of exceptional merit in connection with the regular business meetings.

Artists of national and international reputation are secured for the program and the association proposes to have two days concerts by the famous Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

The project met with hearty favor and Secretary Weber was directed to call a meeting of the music lovers of the city with a view to taking definite steps for securing the convention. Messrs. H. K. Snyder and Thos. Stevenson appeared before the meeting and spoke of the plan now underway to oil the state road to the Sangamon county line where the Springfield commissioners will complete the oiling to Springfield.
About two thousand dollars is necessary to oil the twelve miles or so of road and the Chamber of Commerce was asked to assist in securing the money. A general discussion of oil roads was indulged in and all present were in favor of the type of road. The matter was referred to the rural affairs committee for action.

Mayor H. J. Rodgers, President J.
J. Reeve and Mr. C. H. Rammelkamp were appointed as a reception committee to entertain the members of the State Board of Administration and the C. & A. railroad officials who will be in the city to attend the luncheon at the Peacock Inn at noon today.

Secretary Weber reported at length upon many of the activities of the association and all departments were shown to be in splendid condition.
